U13's Comfortable Win In Tralee

Park 0—5 Killorglin

A great performance and a great result in Tralee this weekend for the U13's.

Killorglin opened the scoring when Cillian Sayers found himself free following a Jonathon Kissane cross and nearly ripped the net off from 2 yards out. After that we applied a lot of pressure and another goal followed from Jonathon soon after.

The Park tried to rally but a great save from Dylan Costello kept it to 2 – 0 at half time.

After the break Killorglin continued to play well and second half sub Cain Bradley added the third to ease the pressure.

Both Kissane and Bradley completed the scoring as they both finished the game with a brace each.

A well organised and gritty performance and the scoreline did not reflect the effort put in by Park.

In defence Dylan Costello and Shane Ahern who took control and stopped any threats.

A good performance from the full backs, Sean Cremins and Darragh O'Shea helped.

With 2 games remaining Killorglin are on 9 points.

U15's Listowel Celtic 3—3 Killorglin

Listowel Celtic B and Killorglin B are only separated by a point and couldn't be separated in this game, drawing 3 all. For the North Kerry side Adam Kennedy got 2 and Tom Melville scored the third and for Killorglin there goals came from Shane Cahill, Thomas Etherington and Andre O'Sullivan.

Killorglin were leading 0—2 but rallied well as the home side got on top and were leading until Andre O'Sullivan snatched an equaliser for the visitors. Best for Killorglin was Sean O'Dea.

A Bridge Too Far Perhaps !

Sir Alex signed him to replace Peter Schmeichel? In 1999, with Raimond van der Gouw always wearing his bridesmaid's outfit and Mark Bosnich too cocky by half, Sir Alex Ferguson splashed out £4.5m on Venezia journeyman Massimo Taibi. The omnipresent tracksuit bottoms should have caused Ferguson to pause for thought. Instead, Taibi conceded two sloppy goals at Liverpool on his debut and one to Wimbledon the following week. Then the fun began: Southampton scored three at Old Trafford, including a Matthew Le Tissier "shot" that trickled through Taibi's legs and was so soft, it barely crossed the line. Eight days later, Chelsea put five past him at Stamford Bridge and this Italian's job was over, little more than a month after it had begun. Taibi rotted in the reserves until Reggina took him on loan before a £2.5m purchase at season's end. He was, noted a generous Roy Keane, "clearly a good keeper". Clearly.

Trip Of A Lifetime

Congratulations to the 3 amigos playing with Killorglin U15's—Shane McGloughlin, Paddy Collins and Sean Kelleher. They have been selected to represent Kerry in the International Children's Games this summer. Athletics from various disciplines in Kerry have been selected for this week long trip. This year the games take place in Korea, a memorable trip to look forward to. Tralee will be hosting the games in 2015—
