The Silent Partner

A special word of praise must go to the man behind the scenes—John Dwyer.

Every Monday morning John arrives up at the pitch with his Daily Star, Sandwiches and Tea and spends the next few days repairing the pitch after the weekend and preparing the pitch for the coming weekend.

Many thanks John—it's really appreciated.

Unfortunately John supports Chelsea.

Asdee 2 - 5 Killorglin

The U13's got back to winning ways in Asdee on Saturday morning after a mini tour of North Kerry. Leading
the convoy were manager Sean Costello and parents Bernadette
Kissane, Noreen McGillycuddy and Annette Cronin.

Conditions were good,
no rain and very little wind on a decent pitch.

Killorglin
were very sluggish for the first 10
minutes

or so and Asdee were quick to capitalise as they opened the scoring with a stunning strike from 20 yards giving our keeper Cian no chance.

This reverse acted as the catalyst that Killorglin needed and the deserved equalizer arrived after 20 mins
with Jonathan Kissane once again finding the net for his 3rd goal of the season.

Killorglin piled on the pressure and the second soon followed

when centre forward for the day Darragh O' Sullivan finished to the net after a good passing move and the 3rd goal came from the U12 goal machine Ian McGillycuddy.

The second half quickly saw subs Conor Stan-den and Darragh O'Shea making an appearance and once again the Asdee defence was breached
after some slack marking, allowing Darragh O Sullivan in for his second goal of the afternoon.

Johnathan Kissane
sounded off the scoring for Killorglin with a great shot to make it 5-1. The game fizzled out as a contest after that and

I Was Training Mum, Honest I Was!!

with the two lads on hat tricks,
and taking shots from everywhere, it was unlikely that anyone else was going to get

near scoring for Killorglin.

Asdee got one back from the penalty spot – a dubious decision if truth be told.

This was a decent performance from us and just what the doctor ordered after our exit from the the National Cup. Our defence was solid with Patrick, Dylan, Cian Bradley, Dar-ragh O Shea and Podge Cronin doing well.

The mid-field worked hard all afternoon.
Daniel, Dylan Sullivan, Johnathan, Arron and Conor when introduced all playing some good football. Up front Ian and Darragh were dangerous throughout with 3 good goals between them. It was a good afternoon's
work with Cian Bradley putting in a man of the match performance.

U15's Lose To Top Team Listowel

Killorglin U15 A 0 – 4 Listowel A

Failure to take chances when they came cost Killorglin badly on a heavy pitch in Cloverhill, Killorglin on Saturday.

Killorglin started brightly and their precision passing football had Listowel mesmerised but the home side could not take their chances.

A lead goal for the visitors

10 minutes into the second half hurt Killorglin badly and 2 more goals quickly followed. The inevitable 4th came in the last 5 minutes despite a couple of valiant efforts from keeper Jake Courtney.

Once again Sean Kelleher was excellent along with man of the match Keith Maloney. A special word of praise for Ultan Heffernan who started his first game this season after a number of months on the sideline with a bad leg injury. Good to have you back Ultan.

Jake Courtney, Charlie Purcell, Sean Kelleher, Ultan Heffernan, Keith Maloney, Mike Breen, Shane McGloughlin, Jamie Clifford, Paddy Collins, Dean George, Dan Whittellton. Subs Manus Gallagher, Jack O'Sullivan

U15 B Team Lose In 13 Goal Thriller

Camp A 8 – 5 Killorglin B

If ever there was a game of 2 halves – then this was surely it. The game played in Tralee on the Colleges All Weather Pitch saw Killorglin totally dominate the home side and take a well deserved 4 –2 half time lead.

In the 2nd half Killorglin looked for the early goal to kill off the game but were caught pushing forward on a number of occasions and conceded 3 goals in quick succession along with 3 late strikes.

The Killorglin scorers were Thomas Etherlington with a couple, man of the match Conor Cronin with 2 also and Gavin McKenna.

John Francis O'Grady, Grahame Griffin, Tadhg McCarthy, Neil Cronin, Conor Cronin, Thomas Etherlington, Aaron Foley, Gavin McKenna, Sean O'Dea 13, Andrea O'Sullivan, Cian O'Sullivan. Sub Aidan O'Sullivan.

U13's Killarney Celtic 'B' 2v0 Killorglin AFC 13's 'B'

Not too much between these 2 teams and not many chances.

Killorglin conceded a minute before half time when one of the defenders was robbed of the ball when he was the last man.

The second half was close as well and Celtic scored again when we got caught with the ball at the back and had chances to clear it.

We played some nice football after and Adam came very close and the keeper just managed to keep the ball out on the line at the Batty and Rob were in good form.
