

Killorglin AFC

Newsletter Date Apr 21 2013

Volume 2, Issue 31

U12 League Final This Saturday

Inside this issue:

Kerry Schoolboys/Girls League

Fixtures

Thursday April 25

U14 Killorglin A v K Boys 6.30

Sat April 27

U12 Park A v Killorglin A 12 noon

U14 Killorglin v Ballyhar 11 am

Get the homework out of the way. Have the dinner early. Have petrol in the car and travel to Tralee for a noon kick off.

If our U12's beat The Park Saturday they win the league. In fairness they have been in the top 2 all year and are having a great run in the Cup but this is the one they want.

U12's Cup Semi Final draw is Kenmare v Killorglin

Making a stand.

The Dutch FA is introducing a new scheme in the amateur game next season in which a yellow card will result in a 10 minute spell on the sidelines. In addition anyone who serves a suspension will have to show they have improved their conduct before being allowed to return to action.

"For my father I never played well. When I was a kid and scored four goals in a game he's still find something to criticise" - Lionel Messi reveals the secret of his success in pulling out the stops to impress his father.